Arrests for Conspiracy to Commit Robbery

SANTA BARBARA, CA – August 23, 2012

A month-long investigation by the Santa Barbara Police Department's Narcotics Unit and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms & Explosives resulted today in the arrests of Walter Seth Stanley, age 32, Brian Semaj Moore, age 34, and Colin Koal Hill, age 31, for conspiracy to commit robbery. All are from Santa Barbara.

Investigation revealed that the three intended to commit a takeover-style robbery with firearms at a residence in Goleta, where the intended victims are members of a household involved in the sale of marijuana. The suspects planned to steal marijuana and money.

Stanley was arrested at 8:05 a.m. on a traffic stop at 1800 De La Vina Street. Moore was arrested at 8:40 a.m. at the offices of the Santa Barbara County Probation Department at 117 E. Carrillo Street, where he had an unrelated appointment. Hill was arrested at 3:15 p.m. on the 4000 block of Calle Real.

Members of the media may recall that Stanley was the subject of a July 25, 2012, SBPD Media Release that detailed the July 24, 2012, search of his residence at 315 Stanley Drive and his subsequent arrest for possession for sale of marijuana, cultivation of marijuana, and being a felon in possession of ammunition.
